Yolanda Maria Holtze recently received the Avis award for outstanding citizens.

Receives Avis "We Try Harder" Award

Yolanda Maria Holtze of rural Antioch, who gathered stamps to help the nuns at Spring Grove buy a new car, was presented with the Avis award at the Spring Grove Convent last Thursday.

The Avis "We Try Harder" Community Award was presented to Yolanda by a representative of the Avis Rent-A-Car Co. The awards are given by the company in this nation and in foreign nations where Avis does business.

Yolanda also received a pen and pencil set, and a variety of buttons saying "We Try Harder" in several languages.

Yolanda is nine years old, and suffers from a kidney ailment which often keeps her from going to school. Her gratitude to the nuns who visit her started her on the project of collecting green stamps to help them get a much-needed car.

Yolanda wrote hundreds of letters, to newspapers, well-known people and companies in search of stamps. The response was even better than she'd hoped, and after about ten months enough stamps and money donations had been amassed to purchase the car.

Injunction Stops Water Turn-Off

Controversy over an unpaid water bill has led to the filing of a restraining injunction against the village, it was revealed at Tuesday night's meeting of the village board.

Ray Lorenz filed the injunction, restraining the village from turning off the water. The bill was incurred for the August to November water usage.

Lorenz refused to pay the bill, claiming it was exorbitant. During previous discussion of the bill, it was stated that Lorenz left a hose running constantly because of the high iron content of the water. This accounted for the high bill.

The village shut off water at the Lorenz home some time ago because of the unpaid bill, at the time several other turn-offs were ordered for the same reason.

Lorenz paid the bill subsequent to the contested one at that time, but refused to pay the August to November bill, and the water was turned off pending settlement.

The bill was originally $415 for the three-month period. The board reduced the bill to $339 because it was estimated that a large amount of the water ran into the storm sewer rather than the sanitary sewer. Lorenz refused to pay the reduced bill.

Lorenz, represented by his uncle, Francis Lorenz, met with the village board recently to try to settle the matter. The Lorenz's offered to settle the bill for $250. The board rejected the proposal, and notified Lorenz that the bill must be paid by March 14 or the water would be turned off. Filing of the injunction prevented the village from turning off the water.

No date has been set for hearing of the matter.

TAG DAYS APPROVED

The board approved a tag day for the Ladies Auxiliary of the Military Order of the Purple Heart on Saturday, August 20.

A Tag Day for the Channel 11 fund drive this Saturday, March 11, was also approved.

BIDS ACCEPTED

Bids were opened for work on the Antioch Police Station. As only one bid was submitted on each project, the board accepted a bid from Jerry Rockow to stucco the rear of the building at a cost of $417; Ace Roofing bid to put on a new roof for $365, and a bid from Frank Bones to do inside remodeling at a cost of $447.

The inside remodeling will include lowering ceilings in the main room, the chief's office.

Controversy over an unpaid water bill has led to the filing of a restraining injunction against the village, it was revealed at Tuesday night's meeting of the village board.

Ray Lorenz filed the injunction, restraining the village from turning off the water.

The bill was incurred for the August to November water usage.

Lorenz refused to pay the bill, claiming it was exorbitant. During previous discussion of the bill, it was stated that Lorenz left a hose running constantly because of the high iron content of the water. This accounted for the high bill.

A Little Less Junk Mail

Every once in a while the Legislature takes action on some seemingly minor matter which receives little publicity and excites no controversy but affects each of us.

Such a measure was passed by the last Legislature. It provides that recipients no longer have any responsibility for unsolicited goods they receive in the mail.

The law became effective January 1. And any of those unsolicited little "gifts" you receive in the mail from now on you may either use or throw away, as you wish. You are under no obligation to pay for them.

Formerly, senders of such merchandise gambled on the curiosity of recipients to make them open the package. Then, if it was unwanted merchandise, you had to pack it up again for mailing, and pay postage to return it to the sender. If the article was not too expensive, a good percentage of people would pay for it rather than return it.

It was infuriating, and evidently the legislators felt this had gone on long enough.

So if you notice you simply aren't receiving any more of those delightful little items "for ten days free trial", this is why. The senders can now expect to lose any items that they mail out in this manner. And we will all be spared a great deal of irritation.

Courthouse Notebook

BY LOU DURKIN

Elimination of all political considerations in the appointment of Sheriff's Office Merit Commission members is an oft-expressed sentiment of those who see something evil and unsavory in politics and yet it is hard to divorce politics from a political appointment.

The recent appointment of Rudy Magnifici, of Round Lake, to the Merit Commission is a case in point.

Representation of western Lake County on the Merit Commission should be virtually automatic since the bulk of the department's police work is done in the unincorporated areas of the county and the sprawling Chain O' Lakes area and the other resort sections probably require more attention from the sheriff's office than all the rest of the county.

Given a western county representative, it then becomes a question of selecting a person who represents the feeling of the people of that area.

Politically, most of the people of western Lake County class themselves as conservatives, a mental conditioning that even overtakes many "carpetbaggers" soon after they move into the lakes area.

Politics aside, however, the residents of the area have adopted a more liberal attitude towards such subjects as political activity among deputy sheriffs, bingo games run by veterans organizations and volunteer fire departments, and even an occasional dice game or other game of chance.

Dependence of many area businesses on the tourist trade and the knowledge that many vacationing visitors to the area are looking for a little action may account for the more liberal outlook regarding law enforcement.

Magnifici will undoubtedly represent this point of view in Merit Commission deliberations and he will probably find himself at odds with his fellow-members much of the time.

It is difficult not to explore the political ramifications of the appointment, however, because of the current primary campaign.

The personable Round Lake has long been a political ally of former State Representative W. J. Murphy, who is seeking re-election, and of former County Coroner Robert H. (Mickey) Babcox, who is bidding for the GOP nomination for County Clerk.

Another Murphy-Babcox ally is Warren Supervisor Robert Depke, a member of the County Board's Judiciary committee which recommended Magnifici to County Board Chairman Kenneth Henke, also a candidate for County Clerk.

Depke reportedly sponsored the new Merit Board Commission member, but he must have had support from Grant Supervisor Frank Valenta, a Judiciary Committee member who is supporting the County Clerk candidacy of Truman (Snapper) Gerretsen, of Fox Lake.

In the face of this three way parlay it would seem the Sheriff's office will be immobilized as far as the Clerk's race is concerned and that rumors of a link between Chief Deputy Norris Froelich and any of the candidates for Gar-Leaf's present office will be just rumors.

At least one candidate for a Republican nomination in the June primary, Ray Sheahan, of Highland Park, has indicated he has no intention of withdrawing from the County Treasurer's race, if the GOP County Central Committee endorsement goes elsewhere.

Sheahan, who serves on the county board as assistant supervisor from Deerfield Township, admits he would like to have the endorsement of the committee, but does not feel the action should be binding on any candidate.

He is prepared to battle for the nomination by going to the voters if the precinct committeemen pick their chairman, Robert J. Milton, as the organization candidate.

Unless Milton conducts Saturday's nominating convention with scrupulous fairness he could find the endorsement by his peers as a boomerang when he takes to the field in search of votes to implement the good wishes of his fellow-committeemen.

It may be only imagination, but it seems there is less criticism of the Daley "machine" among Republicans these days and more admiration for the Daley "organization."

Your Congressman Reports...

By Cong. Robert McClory

Millions of persons who inhabit this world are threatened this year with hunger and starvation. Indeed, according to the U. S. Department of Agriculture, two-thirds of the world's population residing in Asia, Africa and Central and South America have nutritionally inadequate diets. With our U. S. ability to produce food in abundance, it seems entirely appropriate to develop a plan whereby we can "sell" our abundance abroad in order that these hungry millions may be fed.

The plan described as "Food for Freedom" would seek to convert agricultural surpluses from a glut on the market to an economic benefit for the farmers and the taxpayers. In place of sales of wheat, rice, etc., for "local currencies" (which can be spent only within the country benefited), the sales of most surplus agricultural goods would be for cash. Although the cash sale would be at a reduced price, it would be conditioned on the purchasing nation's demonstration of self-help. Self-help could include such factors as: (a) adoption of modern agricultural techniques, (b) expanded use of fertilizers, and (c) steps designed to control population.

The Food for Freedom plan would permit expansion of American agriculture to take care of the rising world demand for food products. The plan would also release the government and the farm community from the burden of much idle land. During the current year, for example, it is proposed to permit soybean production on 80 per cent of a farmer's acreage allotment instead of a mere 30 per cent of such acreage as at present.

The Food for Freedom is not entirely new. The well-known PL 480 passed in 1954 at the urging of former President Eisenhower is the forerunner of the new plan. It was part of President Eisenhower's "Food for Peace" program under which many millions of hungry citizens around the world have been fed.

While American food production continues to increase in terms of our nation's population, many of the less-developed nations have actually suffered a decline in per capita production. In such populous countries as Nigeria, Egypt and Pakistan, crop output has failed to keep pace with population growth. These and other countries need not only food—they need also to know (1) how to increase their agricultural output, and (2) how to hold down their population growth.

However, it appears that a high degree of realism to surplus food policy has been adopted in the present proposal. The philosophy of the pending legislation would be to stockpile substantial quantities of agricultural goods. However, these stockpiles would NOT be released to depress local market prices (as has so frequently been the practice in the past). The stockpiles would be available to market abroad—at the best prices obtainable in currencies which our nation might use in promoting the national welfare. Other provisions in the Food for Freedom bill will permit emergency shipments of surplus food supplies to disaster areas.

However, the main emphasis of the new proposal is self-help. Underdeveloped countries which are earnestly trying to improve the agricultural and economic lot of their citizens will find the new proposal to their advantage.

Legislation aimed at carrying out the Food for Freedom program is pending before the House Agriculture Committee. It is expected to come to the floor of the U. S. House of Representatives later this month—for action.

To the Antioch News:
Girl Scouting got its first start in Antioch just fifty-four years ago, in 1912. Troop leaders were then called the captain and the Lieutenant. Miss Belle Hughes, the first Captain, was most energetic in organizing the first troops. She gave unstintingly of her time and talents and deserves much credit for her outstanding work.

She chose me as her junior assistant. I was in high school, but being enthused with the Scouting idea, I also tried hard to deserve my title, "Lieutenant."

My praise and honor goes to Belle, and to all the fine Antioch women who have helped in Scouting all these years since.

Has the news-management technique of the Federal Government come into use where our local activities are concerned?

The news has been largely blacked out where a very fine Sheriff Candidate, Lloyd DeTienne, is concerned. Candidate DeTienne is very much in the running and is not about to withdraw as the "whispering" campaign would have the voters believe.

The people are entitled to know who is running and hear the story of all who are campaigning, not just about those the "ruling clique" publicized.

Dear Annie Mae:
This is not for publication, but I'd like to tell you that I enjoy your column. It reminds me of the High School news columns we wrote in 1915 and '16 when John Horan was working in the Antioch News Shop, then on the east side of the street down toward the Edgar Hotel which was on the corner of Orchard and Main.

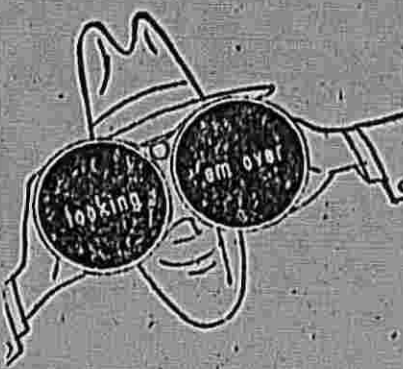

I've been away from Antioch over 40 years, but I grew up there. Our H. S. class campaigned for a shed in which to play basketball and got the new A.T.H.S. for our trouble. Later I taught in the present grade school, and at Ingleside (Grant School). Dr. Spafford's father and my grandfather were two of the first settlers in town. My brother, Frank Harry Willett still lives on Lake Street.

I've been wanting to ask you how to go about rounding up my class of 1917 for a 50th high school reunion. There were two Jack boys from Millburn, Jack Morley, Anita Hucker, Ruby Leonard of Lake Villa, Marie Jonhonnott (last heard of in N. Y.), and myself. I think the others are dead. I think it would be fun to meet again.

I have been a widow now for nearly 7 years. My brother gave me a subscription to the Antioch News for Christmas. There are not many familiar names any more, but I really enjoy the paper and read ALL of it as soon as it comes. At least the places are known to me.

SIGNS OF SPRING: Mrs. Allen Mielke of Channel Lake saw a large flock of geese headed north last Wednesday morning. And bird-watcher Harry Stern saw a flock of red-winged blackbirds.

And finally, two reports of first robins—the final, happy sign of spring. Maybe they'll get caught in a snowstorm, but they're here, and spring won't be far behind.

In spite of the warm weather, the ice fishermen are still out on Channel Lake, getting in the final hours of their favorite sport. And up at Lake Delavan, one ice fisherman drowned; the other was pulled from the lake by the Rescue Squad. The ice wouldn't hold their sled of equipment.

Time to start thinking of the garden, get the boat ready, spring house cleaning, painting. Time to check the lawn mower, and the spring clothes. And, of course, time to shop for an Easter outfit.

Not-so-pleasant signs of spring are the muddy holes in side roads, soupy yards and flooding septic tanks.

And, of course, today (March 17) is St. Patrick's Day, when everyone feels the urge to be just a little bit Irish. Green is the color for the day, and if you listen to the radio or TV you're sure to hear "When Irish Eyes Are Smiling" at least ten times.

March 20 is Buzzard Day, when the buzzards fly back to Hineckley, Ohio. A beautiful title for a rock-and-roll song. And Spring begins Sunday, March 20.

The Old Scouter Says

The Northwest District First Aid Meet was held on Saturday, March 12 at the Mundelein High School. 31 Patrols from throughout the District were in attendance and some very good first aid was demonstrated by these teams.

Conspicuous by their absence were all of our local troops, 86 of Channel Lake and 91 and 92 of Antioch.

The Experience of participating in a first aid meet can hardly be replaced by any other type of activity. While it sometimes is hard for a Troop to participate in all the activities in Scouting because there are so many, this one was on the calendar since last August.

The District Scouting activities are to supplement the Troop program, not to replace it, but a lot of experience is gained by attending them. Part of a boy's development is having the experience of meeting and working with boys from other places. Leaders can also share experiences and ideas at these activities and the boy gains from this as well as from his own participation.

We would like to note that

An Open Letter
Dear Mr. President:

I have some questions to ask—

When are we going to WIN the war in Vietnam?

After we've spent nearly fifty billion dollars a year on defense, our armed forces should be capable of cleaning out those guerillas in short order.

If we can't, why don't we allow Chiang Kai-shek's troops to go over and help us?

Why not accept Rhodesia's offer to help us? Why don't we set up a blockade that will stop our "Allies" from trading with our enemies and that will deprive our enemies of the necessities for carrying on the war?

Why don't we abandon the policy of "privileged sanctuary"?

Let's wage this war to WIN! Along with millions of other Americans, I repeat—

When are we going to WIN the war in Vietnam?

Sincerely,
Muriel M. Jörn

the First Aid Meet started on time and ended on time, an indication that the boys who were there were well prepared. The attendance of many Firemen and Rescue Squad members from the various communities of the District also played a major part in this. The meet was under the direction of the District Health and Safety Committee.

Coming Events: Troop 92—A Court of Honor later this month.

Leadership Training March 19, 26 at St. Andrew Church in Mundelein.

Team members were: Bill Young, Bill Terry, Ronald Wolters, Tom Atwood, Robert Jordan, Dennis Swanson, James Campbell, and Bob Wolters. The Scoutmaster was Ray Atwood.

ASK RE-ZONING

Charles Cermak, representing a client, asked for re-zoning of the property on the corner of Orchard and Main now occupied by the Mortensen Hotel, from B-1 to B-2. His client, he said, has an option on the property and wishes to build a Phillips 66 Service Station on the corner. The re-zoning was requested, he said, before the village ordinance was passed.

Mayor Ray Toft pointed out that the village board had no authority in the matter. Since the zoning ordinance was passed, all re-zoning must come before the Zoning board. Toft must appoint a board within 30 days of passage of the bill. The board is not yet appointed.

Cermak said that because of the option, his client "couldn't wait that long." Toft and Attorney Jacobs said the matter would have to wait for Zoning Board consideration.

The Zoning Ordinance was passed March 1.

The board approved a request from the State Bank of Antioch to widen their driveway onto Lake St. to 35 ft. The widening will necessitate removal of two parking meters.

Trustee Vern Barnstable reported that the bridge on the Leo Fox property which interfered with the flow of Sequoit Creek had been broken out. Other property owners, including the Soo Line railroad, have agreed to clean the creek on their property to restore its natural flow.

Irving Walsh announced that the Antioch Garden Club will plant a red maple on the lawn of the village hall in observance of Arbor Day April 29.

The board approved a raise for firemen to $2.00 for the first hour and $1.50 each hour thereafter.

Chairman of the Police Committee Arthur Meierdick announced the hiring of a patrolman, Tom Ring. The board approved the hiring of another patrolman, Jack Davis. Meierdick said Davis has lived in Antioch 20 months and has spent 22 years in the navy.

Meierdick also reported that he had received protests from citizens on the use of Antioch patrolmen at the scene of the recent A&P fire. He said the A&P Store had paid the patrolmen, and also paid for gas for the squad cars.

Trustee Irving Walsh reported that he had met with the new owner of the Willow Dale Dairy and that he had been assured that rubbish on the property adjacent to the village park would be cleaned up.

Trustee David Nissen, representing D. Kravitz, asked permission to install a sewer hook-up on property on the north side of North Ave., pending annexation of the property. The board gave conditional approval, providing the property is annexed within ninety days.

Applied Engineering representatives reported on the cost and method of draining property around the Scout House. Roger Patzer said it would be necessary to install tile adequate to drain thirty acres to the east and north. Natural flow drainage brings the water to this point.

He pointed out that 39 acres to the west of the Scout House also flows to this point and should be provided for in the near future.

Mayor Toft turned the matter over to the committee, Vern Barnstable, Art Meierdick and David Nissen, for study.

Some things are simply inexplicable, and among them is that twenty years from now the present group of teen-agers will complain that their daughters are immodest.

Viet-Na-Mom Selection Is Now Under Way

Screening of candidates for selection as Lake County Viet Na-Mom is slated to get under way at a meeting of the Mom Selection Committee to be held Sunday, according to Mrs. Louise Mack, committee chairman.

More than a score of nominations have already been received from organizations in the county and from individuals who have recommended friends or neighbors, Mrs. Mack reported, and almost every section of the county is represented among the nominees.

All the nominees have sons in service and many of them have sons in Viet Nam at the present time or sons who have completed a tour of duty in the Asiatic war zone.

The selection will be made on the basis of personality, general appearance, participation in community activities, and adaptability.

The Lake County Viet Na-Mom will be formally introduced at the Viet Na-Mom Airlift Benefit Variety Show to be presented at Waukegan High School's West Campus Theatre Saturday, April 1, according to Henry Bogdala, general chairman of the Airlift project.

The woman selected will go to Viet Nam as a representative of servicemen's mothers from all areas and will visit military hospitals and rest zones bringing a touch of home to the young servicemen in the war-torn country.

Accompanying her will be a troupe of Lake County entertainers who will entertain troops wherever headed in the war area as well as the hospitals.

The Viet Nam troupe will be among those appearing at the April 16 benefit show.

Viet Nam veterans hospitalized at the U.S. Navy hospital at Great Lakes and young recruit sailors who may soon be manning the ships carrying the war to the Viet Cong from the sea have already enjoyed visits from the Viet Na-Mom Airlife entertainers.

Patients at the hospital in five wards were entertained recently and officials at the hospital have arranged for a return appearance.

Residents of the Zion, Antioch, Lake Villa, and Fox Lake areas will get a sampling of the entertainment Saturday when the Viet Na-Mom Airlift bus brings entertainers into the areas for brief shows in shopping areas during a ticket sales drive, according to Leo Carvis, president of the Waukegan Federation of musicians and co-chairman of the project's Entertainment Committee.

The Law Serves You

A Public Service of the ILLINOIS STATE BAR ASSOCIATION
YOUR PERSONAL PROPERTY TAXES

Early each year, many people in Illinois receive a visit from "the man with the big book," your local tax assessor. His job is to determine what personal property each person owns and to assign a value to it.

He will inquire about the personal property you own, asking you about your furniture, TV set, automobile, and dog, and whether you have stocks or bonds, livestock, or corn in the crib.

Personal property is revalued every year, while real property, or land, is assessed every four years.

These property valuations, called assessments, are taken so that they may be published locally, giving each taxpayer the opportunity to examine his assessment and complain if he is being taxed excessively. To object, a taxpayer must give written notice of objection within ten days of publication.

Assessment books are sent to your local county board of review, composed of three members in downstate counties. The board hears objections to assessments, most of which are presented by the taxpayer as an unfair assessment in comparison to similar or neighboring property that has been assessed at a lower valuation.

The board will make an adjustment if it deems that the assessment is unfair. If the taxpayer still is not satisfied, he may obtain a court review of the board's decision.

Equalization of Assessments
After making appropriate changes in the assessment books, the board returns the books to the county clerk, who determines the amount of tax to be levied on the assessed valuation.

The true fair cash value of property is likely to differ throughout Illinois' 102 counties. For example, a Rock Island County assessor may set value of a 1963 auto at $1,500, while a Wayne County assessor for the same model car might be $1,300.

In order to equalize values in the state, the Illinois Revenue Department instructs local assessors to use uniform values for autos, grain, and certain other personal property. The Department also examines records of sales of property in each county and compares actual prices with assessors' valuations.

On the basis of such surveys, the Department arrives at an average ratio of assessed valuation to full valuation for each county. The county clerk in each county multiplies all assessments by the percentage figure applicable to the county he serves. This theoretically, equalizes val-

Troops Join In Camp-Out

Boy Scout Troop 86 of Channel Lake and Troop 79 of Ingleside had a joint camp-out at the grounds of the Northern Illinois Conservation Club at Channel Lake last Friday night.

Thirty-one boys took part in the camp-out, according to Elmer Meierdick, chairman of Troop 86.

Keller In State Representative Race

Nick Keller has announced his candidacy for the Republican nomination for State Representative from the 31st Representative District.

Keller, a nominee of the Republican Party in the 1964 General Election ran second in the district among the eight Lake County candidates. As a candidate in that election Keller supported the present redistricting of Lake County into north and south districts.

Keller is associated with Lamson Bros. and Company, brokerage firm in Waukegan, and operates a farm in Antioch.

As a life long resident of the district Keller feels he is equipped to recognize the needs of the district and work with municipal and county officials in such important areas as education, industrial development, roads and conservation.

Keller and his wife, Janice, are the parents of five children and reside in Waukegan. Keller is a Republican and Township Chairman of Benton Township.

As a life long resident of the district Keller feels he is equipped to recognize the needs of the district and work with municipal and county officials in such important areas as education, industrial development, roads and conservation.

Spreading the Taxes
The county clerk then multiplies the equalized assessment figures of each owner by the lawful tax rate, thus computing the tax each owner must pay. The county collector then mails the personal property tax bills, which are based on property value as of April 1 of each year, and payable during the following year. The entire process, from assessment to the final mailing of tax bills, takes more than a full year.

Honored For Good Work

Miss Dorothy A. Lasco of rural Antioch was honored recently for her work at the Navy Electronics Supply Office, Great Lakes.

Captain Frederic W. Gorle, Supply Corps, USN, Commanding Officer, presented a special pay increase to Miss Lasco in recognition of her unusually high production rate in typing contract documents.

Miss Lasco is employed as Clerk-Typist in the Contract Administration Branch of ESO's Purchase Division. In recommending her for the award, Mrs. Samuel Paxton, Branch Head, stated that Miss Lasco had sacrificed her personal time to respond to urgent work requests. "She takes directions well from her supervisor and the contract administrators and trains new typists completely without assistance," Mrs. Paxton said. "A high degree of effectiveness is characteristic of her performance."

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE CHURCHES

Continuing a study of the spiritual versus material concepts of substance, Christian Science churches this week will present a Lesson-Sermon on "Matter."

Jesus' parable of the tares and the wheat (Matt. 13) will be used for the responsive reading. Another of the Bible references to be considered is from II Timothy: "In a great house there are not only vessels of gold and of silver, but also of wood and of earth; and some to honour, and some to dishonour. If a man therefore purge himself from these, he shall be a vessel unto honour, sanctified, and meet for the master's use, and prepared unto every good work."

A corresponding passage is from the Christian Science textbook: "The suppositional warfare between truth and error is only the mental conflict between the evidence of the spiritual senses and the testimony of the material senses, and this warfare between the Spirit and flesh will settle all questions through faith in and the understanding of divine Love." ("Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy.)

A PUBLIC SERVICE OF THE ILLINOIS STATE MEDICAL SOCIETY

EPILEPSY COULD STRIKE ANYONE

Epilepsy has too long been misunderstood. Most people think it is primarily an inherited disease which affects the intelligence and prevents one from leading a normal life. This could not be further from the truth.

First of all, epilepsy is not a disease. It's a symptom that something is wrong with the brain, just as fever is a symptom of an infection in the body. And heredity plays a very small role in epilepsy. Actually there are a variety of causes which can make anyone susceptible—even you—regardless of your family tree. For instance epilepsy can result from:

—A blow on the head
—A brain tumor
—Arteriosclerosis
—Metabolic disorders
—Chemical poisonings
—Brain damage caused by common contagious childhood diseases such as measles and mumps.
—Complications and injuries to the brain that occur during birth.

—Adverse prenatal conditions that result in brain damage.
—A mild form of epilepsy—petit mal—may carry a hereditary factor. Fortunately, for some, this type may "burn out." In other words, a child may outgrow it. But for others, it may convert to grand mal—the most severe form of epilepsy.

With all these potential causes of epilepsy (and there are many more of unknown origin) it's not surprising to learn that some 1,000 new cases occur in the United States every week.

Regardless of the cause, epilepsy injures or impairs a group of brain cells, causing them to release an abnormal amount of energy. The result? A seizure that may range in intensity from a few seconds loss of consciousness to major convulsions. Unless epilepsy is accompanied by severe brain damage, tumor or infection, these seizures—be they slight or severe—very RARELY affect one's intelligence.

THE ANTIOCH NEWS 5 THURSDAY, MARCH 17, 1966

Today over 80 percent of all epileptics attend school, hold jobs and lead normal lives—thanks to the work of various research centers which have developed medications and surgical techniques resulting in the control and, hopefully, in the cure of this misunderstood condition.

Where To Send Income Tax Return

Do you know where to mail your 1965 Federal income tax return?

For Illinois taxpayers, 1965 tax returns should be mailed to District Director of Internal Revenue, 17 North Dearborn Street, Chicago, Illinois 60602.

Thousands of taxpayers call Internal Revenue Service every week, asking for the correct mailing address, District Director of Internal Revenue E. C. Coyle, Jr., said. Other thousands mail their returns to the wrong office.

When this happens, Mr. Coyle said, returns must be sorted and forwarded to the correct offices. This delays the processing of the returns and refund checks.

Tyrone Walls

The 1966 Team

By Roger Andrews, Varsity Coach

The basketball season was a very rich and rewarding one. The boys gave a great deal of time and effort to Antioch for another winning season.

The final season record was 18-9 and the winning of the Mooseheart Tournament and a second straight district title made us all proud to say we are from Antioch Community High School.

We sure hate to say goodbye to the senior boys, Mike Sterbenz, Tom Blackman, Bob Schenk, Rich Albano, and Pat Sheehan. These boys have shown a lot of spirit and desire to win. Their shoes will be hard to fill.

Mike, being the top scorer on the team, all conference, and one of the team's leading rebounders; Tom Blackman, one of the most underrated players in the conference, was an excellent defensive man, good scorer, and fine rebounder. Mike and Tom were elected Co-Captains by their teammates.

Bob Schenk, Most Improved player on the team and dubbed "Mr. Scrappier" by his teammates will be missed, his spirit and desire helped us in several games.

Rich Albano and Pat Sheehan were very able reserves for us and their great courage was an excellent lift to the squad.

To you seniors, thanks so very much for your excellent contribution to the basketball program, best wishes and may the future be full of success.

Returning boys that should carry on the Antioch tradition of winning will be All Conference, All Area Tyrone Walls—team's most valuable player, second in scoring, and team leader in rebounds and assists.

Two fine guards—Bill Sheldon and Jim Litchfield, these two boys came on strong the last half of the season. Don Zeman—"Mr. Utility"—as he played every position on the team and did an excellent job. Also, to give us a great deal of help next season will be Fred Gras, Leonard Clark, and Bob Murphy.

Jerry Whitson, a transfer from Decatur High may prove to be an extra added assist. Jerry was 7th or 8th man on the Decatur team that just made the "Elite Eight" in the state tournament.

Again a special thanks to the seniors, it was a great effort.

Walls Earns Another Honor

Tyrone Walls added another honor to his already impressive list of awards and honors last week when he was named to the Chicago Daily News State all-area basketball team.

Rufus Woods from North Chicago was the other candidate from the northern area but was passed over because of Walls' superior rebounding ability and all around versatility.

In two years of varsity competition at Antioch Walls has compiled a rather impressive record. He has scored 755 points, picked off 492 rebounds and 237 assists. He led the squad in practically every department this past season.

Walls has been named all-conference two years running and was picked 1st team all-tourney at the Rockford Classic this past Christmas. He has also been named the team's most valuable player.

Add to this the fact that he has scored at a 43% clip from the field and 65% from the free throw line and you begin to get a picture of quite a basketball player. Oh, yes, Tyrone is a Junior and will be returning for action next year.

Soph Matmen Tops In Conference

The Antioch Sophomore Wrestling team recently completed one of the most successful seasons in many years with a record of 12 wins and two losses. The two losses were to Zion and Warren. The loss to Warren was avenged later in the season with the winning of the Conference Tournament.

The Soph team produced three conference champs in Paul Lulofs, Dave Blagg and Larry Davis. Matt Nolan, Mike McClanahan and Bill Nader took second in the conference and Dennis Plevlak and Bill Revel took thirds.

Coach Andy Hauptman and varsity mentor Bill Neuman said that "if these boys stay together and continue to learn and improve as they did during the season they should be one of the finest wrestling teams that Antioch has ever produced."

Open Trap Shoot Season

The Northern Illinois Conservation Club will inaugurate their 1966 Trap Shooting season with a merchandise shoot at the club grounds on Route 173, three miles west of Antioch, Sunday, March 20th.

FUN and FACTS

About Bowling.....by Dick Ericson

SHOULDER ANGLE: The angle at which a straight line runs from the shoulders to the floor by way of the midsection is not constant. The more you bowl, the less you protrude.

SHOULDER ANGLE: The bowler's shoulders always are at a right angle to the line he intends his ball to follow. For example, if a bowler is trying to get a strike from an angle other than a straight line perpendicular to the foul line, he should assume that angle with his shoulders. Also, on spares such as the 7 pin or 10 pin conversion, he should approach the foul line at an angle.

Illinois Bell Reports Progress In Past Year

A record of $200 million will be invested in hundreds of projects and services in 1966 to "keep in step with growing numbers of customers making greater use of communications services," President John D. deButts said in Illinois Bell Telephone Company's annual report.

The 1966 capital outlay, largest in the company's history, will push Illinois Bell's construction spending in seven years (1960-66) to $1.4 billion, deButts said. One-third of this total goes for equipment on customers' premises.

"During 1965, our capital spending amounted to $195.6 million for land and buildings, wire and cable, switchboards, microwave and carrier systems, telephones, trucks, tools and many other things needed for modern communications," he added. The $195.6 million expenditure was also an all-time high, 255 per cent more than in 1964.

The report pinpointed other forces which deButts said continued to pump vitality into the economy of the 436 home towns" the company serves: Wages and related costs totaled $291,951,000, more than $21 million over 1964. Total Bell System payments in Illinois Bell territory climbed to over $865 million in wages, taxes, purchases from local businessmen and dividend payments to share owners. This translated into more jobs inside and outside the company. The number of Illinois Bell employees climbed to 35,112, a gain of 836 over 1964.

Illinois Bell also revealed that two decades of burying telephone cable had protected telephone service as "cranky Mother Nature" buffeted its plant with floods, tornadoes and steel-wind storms. In 1965, the company installed about 90 per cent of its wire in cable underground, and 81 per cent of its total wire is now buried. The company estimated that without this long-$1.5 million storm damage bill in 1965—five times greater than an average year—might have been more than $3 million. Pressurized cable, which keeps out moisture, diesel generators to provide emergency power and new testing methods also helped blunt Nature's assaults.

Taxes paid by Illinois Bell in 1965 were $234.6 million. This included $171.2 million in operating taxes; and $63.4 million in federal excise taxes which the company billed to customers and collected for the government.

The report commented on President John's request to Congress to renew the full 10 per cent excise tax on telephone service, only 12 days after the tax was cut from 10 to 3 per cent on January 1 in the first of four steps which would have eliminated the tax by 1969.

"We recognize, of course, our nation's need for additional revenue at this critical time. But, along with most telephone users, we're disappointed that return of the full 10% tax was chosen to obtain a substantial portion of these revenues."

Illinois Bell spent $2.7 million to improve "hearability" in 1965 and has allocated another $3.8 million this year to "get rid of occasional snap, crackle and pop on phone lines."

"The customer's telephone dollar again bought more in 1965 through rate reductions and new services," the report added. Bargain calling hours were extended during evening and weekend hours on out-of-state, station-to-station calls and on similar long distance calls in Illinois and Indiana; more toll-free calling areas were introduced; new optional services reduced bills for many Illinois customers in 161 telephone communities outside the Chicago metropolitan area.

Also more than 200,000 older telephones were replaced with new instruments at no charge to the customers and

Free Class For Young Homemakers

The first in a series of three classes for young homemakers was held March 10 at the Fairgrounds Auditorium, Grayslake.

Mrs. Helen Volk, Lake County Home Adviser, taught the first lesson on "Budgeting Wisely." In April and May specialists from the University will give lessons on "Food and Nutrition" and "The Pre-School Child."

The purpose of these lessons is to give the many young homemakers in the county a source of authentic educational information which will be helpful to them in establishing a No. 1 home for their families.

This program is sponsored by the University of Illinois Cooperative Extension Service in Home Economics. Headquarters in Lake County are at the Farm Bureau Building on Route 45 at the Fairgrounds. There is no cost for this series and all young homemakers are invited. They may call Mrs. Volk at BA 3-4844 for further information.

There has been a 7 1/2 percent decline in the cardiovascular death rate among U. S. men, aged 45-64, 1950-1962. This overall gain according to your Chicago Heart Association, has been achieved even though the mortality rate due to heart attack is still going up.

Klondike Derby

The annual Klondike Derby was hosted by Troop 84, Boy Scouts of America, in Lindenhurst on Feb. 28.

Fourteen Scouts from Troop 188 of Venetian Village, 12 Scouts from Troop 184 of Lake Villa, and 12 from host Troop 84, Lindenhurst, competed over the two 4-mile courses, Klondike fashion.

The derby is the highlight of the winter scouting program. In past years this was sponsored by the Northwest District, and when the district did not include the derby on its schedule this year, Troop 84 decided to fill this need. Judging by the enthusiasm generated, the derby will be an annual winter event in Lindenhurst.

Guest Night

Last Thursday was "Guest Night" at the Lindenhurst Women's Club.

Main topic of business was the discussion of "should the club contact residents to take a survey to determine if Lindenhurst would use a bus service, if one were made available." Members voted to phone residents. Pat Mauck is chairman.

Friday night, Jenny Volpentesta, Joy Manuel, Pat Rieky, Bridie Gibbons, Zenia

Neumann, Barbara Hendrickson, Annette Hoffman, Jeanette Margliano, Pat Mauck, Dorothy Thompson, Pat Parpan and Evelyn Swanson represented the Lindenhurst Women's Club when they visited the servicemen at Great Lakes Hospital.

Anniversaries

Anniversary greetings to George and Anne Lance who will be celebrating their 10th anniversary on March 21. The Bill Kaubs were married 27 years on the 19th. Ray and Marie Roedel will be celebrating 31 years on March 23. Best wishes to all of you.

Boy Scout Court of Honor

The Lindenhurst Boy Scout Troop 84 held a Court of Honor Feb. 28 at the Lindenhurst Civic Center. Troop 84 has established a tradition of presenting a boy's mother with a miniature pin denoting his newly attained rank. The boys who enabled their mothers to be so honored are:

Tenderfoot, Jeff Kockler, Ken Boucos, David Buksas, Steve Lazansky, Bill Wismer, Bob and Ricky Myslinski. Second Class: Dale Nelson and Jack Blue.

A special honor was paid to star scout Mike Pearce, who having attained the age of 15, can no longer hold a troop office. Former Sr. Patrol Leader, Mike was presented with a Scout ring by the troop committee in recognition of his outstanding contributions to the success of Troop 84.

Ray Parpan, president of the Lindenhurst Men's Club, spoke on the necessity of community and parental support to ensure a dynamic Scouting program in our village.

The boys who manned the stations of the Klondike Derby Saturday, Feb. 28, were presented with waterproof match cases for their work.

Skills were put on by each of the patrols for the entertainment of all, after which refreshments were served. Mrs. Bailey presided over the kitchen.

Parents were the only babysitters, and men worked for an honest living instead of wishing for one.

Series 65 To Supplement Medicare

A new Blue Cross-Blue Shield program has been developed to fill the gaps and extend the benefits provided by Medicare to people over 65. R. T. Evans, chief executive officer of the two plans has announced.

The new program, named "Series 65", will replace the basic Blue Cross-Blue Shield coverage of members who are now over 65, effective July 1.

Senior citizens not presently members of Blue Cross-Blue Shield will be given opportunity to join. Evans emphasized that the new program will in no way duplicate benefits available through Medicare Parts A and B.

"Series 65" rates have been set very low," Evans said. "Our approach has been to develop a structure of benefits that take over where Medicare leaves off."

The new Blue Cross-Blue Shield plan will pay 80% of deductibles and other charges included in Medicare benefits for which the patient must pay. There is an annual deductible of $100 and a lifetime maximum of $10,000. For direct subscribers, the "Series 65" monthly rates per person will be $2.85.

"The general intent of the 'Series 65' program is to extend the basic benefits of Medicare and particularly to provide additional hospital benefits beyond the 90 days provided by Medicare per spell of illness," Evans said.
